

Dominoes square

First we thought about the different ways to make 8 with the 10 dominoes. We found that this way didn't work. We then tried working randomly by placing the dominoes in the grid so that we could mix and match the domino pieces.

We started to work out one row so it totalled 8, then continued to work round on the other rows. We swapped the pieces around and found the answer below.

By Cordelia, Esha & Mya